2020 Biennial Conference—Virtual Content Coming Soon!!

Hello,

While we are still sad that we won't be able to see you in-person this summer, your Biennial Conference Committee has been hard at work organizing some virtual conference options! We are still finalizing the details, but accepted presenters for the 2020 Biennial Conference have been invited to share content with the membership in a variety of ways.

First, we will have live programming via Zoom this summer and in the fall. Join us for the following events:

Date	Time	Event
Wednesday, July 15	3:00-4:50 p.m. EDT	Conference Presentations	Multiple sessions—details TBA
	5:00-6:00 p.m. EDT	Zoom Happy Hour	Come socialize with your LWI colleagues from across the country!
Thursday, July 16	11:00-11:50 a.m. EDT	Conference Presentations	Multiple sessions
	12:00-12:50 p.m. EDT	LWI Membership Meeting and Awards Presentation	Celebrate our wonderful Award winners!
	1:00-1:50 p.m. EDT	Conference Presentations	Multiple sessions—details TBA
Friday, Sept. 18	12:00-12:50 p.m. EDT	Conference Presentations	Multiple sessions—details TBA
Wednesday, Nov. 18	12:00-12:50 p.m. EST	Conference Presentations	Multiple sessions—details TBA

For these live events, we will post details on the LWI Website and on our NEW listserv community—LWIC—once they are available. On LWIC, you will find a discussion group dedicated to our LWI Virtual Biennial Conference.

Second, our presenters are working on recorded presentations that will be made available on our LWI YouTube channel. Again, watch for an announcement on LWIC and on the website for these—we'll post a link when they are available.

Third, our presenters are working on digital posters that we'll create a gallery for on the LWI website. We'll announce when these are available as well.

While we couldn't bring you all of the fabulous content that was planned for the conference this summer, we hope that we can share our wonderful ideas and find some comfort in our community this summer and beyond with all of this fantastic content.

Thank you to all of the conference committee members for their continued work and dedication to our membership. Thank you to all of the presenters for your flexibility and willingness to adapt to these formats! We look forward to virtually seeing all of you at these events!

Thank you,
