Special Events

Wednesday, July 14 Introduction to Applied Legal Storytelling

Join our all-star panel: Chris Rideout, Robert McPeake, Steve Johansen, Ruth Anne Robbins, Sherri Keene and Binny Miller to learn the history of the Applied Legal Storytelling movement and get a glimpse of where we are going

Wednesday, July 14 Keynote Address

We are excited to have Loretta Ross join us to present a keynote address. Prof. Ross founded both the SisterSong Women of Color Reproductive Justice Collective and the National Center for Human Rights Education (both based in Atlanta).

Thursday, July 15 Speed Mentoring

Are you a new scholar looking for help in developing your scholarship agenda? This session is designed to allow new scholars to spend time with established storytelling scholars to discuss how to develop a storytelling research agenda.

Social interaction

There will be special rooms open all day long, every day, for you to just "drop in" and socialize with whoever happens to be in the room. In addition, we will have an opening and a closing reception. Bring your own preferred beverage to these informal gatherings; and be sure to prepare your toasts for the closing reception, one of the signature features of every Applied Legal Storytelling conference!
