

As of May 16, 2023

Ninth Applied Legal Storytelling Conference Program City University, London, July 26-28, 2023

Time	Law School Building	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3
Wednesday, July 26
1:00-5:00 p.m.	Sebastian	Registration (Location TBD)
1:00-2:00 p.m.	Sebastian	Posters are hung by presenters
2:00-2:15 p.m.	Whiskin	Welcome
2:30-4:30 p.m. Extended Panels (CLE credit request pending for ethics panel)	Whiskin	Ethical Considerations in Storytelling Panel Steve Johansen, Ruth Anne Robbins, Rachel Croskery-Roberts, Kim Holst, Derek Kiernan-Johnson, Charlie Martel, Helena Whalen-Bridge	Becoming You: Are We What We Advocate?: Identity Development Panel Emily Janoski-Haehlen, James McGrath, Gabrielle Stafford, Todd Stafford
4:45-6:15 p.m.	Sebastian	Poster Presentations and Opening reception Poster presenters will be stationed near their posters to talk about their work. Come, grab a refreshment, and celebrate these visual scholars!
6:15-7:00 p.m.	Sebastian	Keynote

Poster Presentations by:

Alexandra D'Italia, The Storytelling Project: Fostering Empathy and Building Skillsets across Law School Community

Angela Downes & Kay Elliott, Storytelling, Civility, Civil Discourse and the 21st Century Attorney

Carolina Fabara, The Trouble Around Expanding to China

Amanda Harmon Cooley, Teaching Persuasion through Storytelling in Popular Culture and Legal Advocacy

Joshua Aaron Jones, Music Education Methods for Developing Law Student Foundations in Narrative Storytelling

Lenora Ledwon, "How-to-Succeed-in-Law-School" Books: Self-Help Literature and the American Dream of a Legal Education

Sylvia Lett, Keeping the Capital Client's Story Alive Through Dynamic Storytelling

Amy R. Stein, Using the Great Gatsby to Teach Narrative Theory

As of May 16, 2023

Date	Law School Building	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
Thursday, July 27
8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.	Whiskin	Registration (Location TBD)
8:15-9:15 a.m. Early Bird Coffee and Conversations	Whiskin Panel on Discipline Building in Storytelling LWI Discipline Building Working Group
9:30-10:00 a.m.	Whiskin	Jamie Abrams Reevaluating Regional Law Reform Strategies After Dobbs	Lucy Jewel Seeing and Unseeing in Tennessee	Sean Mulcahy, Kate Seear Imaging people who use drugs: How parliamentary actors picture and tell stories about the subjects of drug law reform	Cindy Thomas Archer Can Student-Lawyers Write an Effective Story to an Unfamiliar, Imagined Audience?
10:00-10:20	Whiskin	Coffee Break
10:20-10:50 a.m.	Whiskin	Kim D. Ricardo Constable Humpty Dumpty and the Dubious Theory of Police Reform, An Abolition Story	Richard Neumann Drafting Statutes as Stories	Helena Whalen-Bridge Telling Conflicting Defence Stories in Singapore Criminal Cases: How Legal Procedure Impacts Party Narratives	Amy Bitterman Using Defamiliarization Techniques as a Tool in Persuasive Writing
10:50-11:20 a.m.	Whiskin	Andrew Carter The Choirboy and the Tyrant: Managing Judges' "Character Visualizations" in Written Appellate Advocacy	Kenneth Chestek Storytelling at the Statehouse: An Inside Account	Ezra Ross Storytelling and the Amoral Technician	Susan Greene Turning Windmills into Giants and Back: Using Don Quixote to Tell the Story of the Article 81 Guardianship Laws
11:20-11:30 a.m.	Whiskin	Break

As of May 16, 2023

11:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m.	Whiskin	Thalia González Legal Storytelling as Praxis in Academic and Community Partnerships	Rachel Wallace, Stephanie Campos-Bui Storytelling for Narrative Change in Policy Advocacy	Reena Parambath, Tracye Edwards Developing Cultural Self-Awareness through Origin Storytelling	Dr. Tracey Lindberg If Law Stories Were Love Stories: Were Love Stories: Indigenous Storytelling and Sovereignty, State, Silence, and Settler Violence in the Life and Death of Colten Boushie
12:15-1:30 p.m.	Sebastian	Lunch
1:30-2:00 p.m.	Whiskin	Amanda Levendowski Just Citation: Telling Stories Through Ethical Citation Practices	Bhumika Billa Reconstructing Gendered Realities: A Case of Power Lock-ins in the Indian Legal System	Robin Juni When the Science Is the Story: Using Storytelling Techniques to Communicate Math and Science in Law	Tracy Norton Using Artificial Intelligence to Craft Compelling Human Stories
2:00-2:30 p.m.	Whiskin	Pratiksha Ashok Personification of Legal Story Telling- A study of True-Crime Docuseries on Netflix	Sue Chesler Contracting for the Company's Culture	Kara Finck, Sarah Paoletti Centering Client Experiences through Client Voice: Re-Envisioning Storytelling in Legal Scholarship, Clinical Pedagogy and Representation	Michael D. Murray Dystopia or utopia, freedom through disruptive innovation or enslavement in traps of fraud and greed – Telling the Legal Narratives of Artificial Intelligence, Cyberspace and the Metaverse
2:30-2:40 p.m.	Whiskin	Break
2:40-3:25 p.m.	Whiskin	Praveen Kosuri, Jonathan Smith Narrative Archaeology for Corporate Lawyers	Amanda Delheimer, James Lupo Storytelling as a Relationship Building	Dawn Anderson, June Tai The Chicken AND the Egg: Using Reflection Essays to Develop	Scott Johns The Stories We Tell: Race, Bar Exams, and Un-Constitutional Torts

As of May 16, 2023

			Tool in the Practice of Law	Storytelling Skills and Using Storytelling to Develop Reflection Skills
3:25-3:45 p.m.	Whiskin	Afternoon Tea
3:45-4:15 p.m.	Whiskin	Sha-Shana Crichton Can You Hear Me? Using Stories from The Child Sexual Abuse Epidemic in Jamaica to Advocate for Intentionally Including Bias, Cross-Cultural, and Cultural Competency into Jamaica's Program of Legal Education	Michael Murphy How I Turned a Boring Old Contract Interpretation Class Session into a Hero's Journey	Antoine De Spiegeleir Judicial Auto-Narration: The Life Writings of the Respected Old Lady	Tonya Krause-Phelan Not a Hero, Not a Villain: Crafting Effective Sentencing Advocacy with the Antihero Story
4:15-4:45 p.m.	Whiskin	Karen Czapanskiy Paternal Rights of Rapists: Stories Legislators Tell	Derek Kiernan-Johnson Visual Storytelling and Constitutive Rhetoric in French Wine Labeling	Dr. Tatiana Grieshofer Adversarialism and Narrativisation in County and Family Courts	Danielle R. Cover Increasing the Persuasive Weight of the Counter-narrative

As of May 16, 2023

Time	Law School Building	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4
Friday, July 28
8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.	Whiskin	Registration (Location TBD)
9:00-9:30 a.m.	Whiskin	Maybell Romero Autoethnography in Legal Scholarship	Melissa Weresh The Borders of Identity: Narrative in Asylum	Susan Tanner The Role of Narrative in Law and Policy	Hilary Bell Do On-Screen Representations of Female Arab Lawyers Belie their Progress in the Legal Market?
9:30-10:00 a.m.	Whiskin	Kathy Stanchi The Rhetoric of Rape Through the Lens of Commonwealth v. Berkowitz	Maria Termini, Joy Kanwar Narrative Negatives / Negative Narratives	Alexandra D'Italia Storytelling in the Fast-Changing Landscape of Inclusive Language	Mridula Raman Creative Storytelling When Seeking Capital Clemency
10:00-10:20	Whiskin	Coffee Break (Location TBD)
10:20-10:50 a.m.	Whiskin	Eun Hee Han, Tiffany Jeffers Personal Narrative as Counter-Story	Heidi Gilchrist Real People Behind the National Security Law Cases	Chris Chambers Goodman "I'm not racist!" Implications of Racial Anxiety in Words Used in Oral Arguments	Alicia Plerhoples Challenging Shareholder Wealth Maximization Through a Family Feud Story
10:50-11:20 a.m.	Whiskin	Sherri Lee Keene What in the Storyworld? Exploring "High Crime Area" as Setting in Fourth Amendment Analysis	Beth Schwartz Examining the Storytelling of Pro Se Litigants	Summer Chandler, Susan Tanner The Honest But Unfortunate Debtor: Victims and Villains in Bankruptcy	Keith Richotte, Jr. The Worst Trickster Story Ever Told: Native America, Plenary Power, and the U.S. Constitution
11:20-11:30 a.m.	Whiskin	Break

As of May 16, 2023

11:30 a.m.- 12:15 p.m.	Whiskin	Nantiya Ruan, Patience Crowder, Lisa Graybill, Lindsey Webb Hashtag Culture: The Up and Downsides of Modern Taglines in Legal Advocacy	David Frank, Brian N. Larson, Kristen K. Tiscione Rhetoric Untold: Stories of Law and Rhetoric in the West	Yvette Butler, Ngozi Okidegbe, Lisa Washington Knowledge, Narrative, and Liberatory Interventions to Embedded Carceral Stories	Amanda Thurston Chamu Kuppuswamy What is the real story?
12:15-1:30 p.m.	Sebastian	Lunch
1:30-2:00 p.m.	Whiskin	Sarah VanWye Legal conception?: Telling the story of a reasonable expectation of reproductive privacy in the digital age	Stefan Krieger, Narrativity and Inference-Drawing	Julie E. McConnell Unshackled: Righting the Wrongs of the Past- Stories of Redemption and Second Chances for Youthful Offenders	Maureen Johnson What Went Wrong (or Right!) with the Affirmative Action Cases: Taking Back the Narrative on a "Color- Blind" Constitution in College Admissions and Beyond
2:00-2:30 p.m.	Whiskin	Dr. Emma Nottingham Legal Archaeology and the Study of Test Cases	Michael R. Smith Telling the "Story" of a Rule in Persuasive Legal Writing: The When, The Why, and The How	Dehlia Umunna Killing Mockingbirds: Telling Powerful Stories in the Criminal Justice Context	Williamson Bun Chin Chang Storytelling and Legal Education: The History of Hawaii Through Water Rights
2:30-2:40 p.m.	Whiskin	Break
2:40-3:10 p.m.	Whiskin	Sarah Gerwig The Power of Narrative in Game-Based Learning in Legal Education	Ann Davis Shields Using Storytelling to Prevent Impasse in Mediations	Telia Mary U. Williams The Law's Two Bodies: Sovereign Citizens and Courts of Story	Julie Oseid Best Lawyer in a Supporting Role: Unsung Lawyers from (In)Famous American Criminal Trials
3:10-3:30 p.m.	Whiskin	Afternoon Tea

As of May 16, 2023

3:30-4:00 p.m.	Whiskin	Caroline Rogus Telling the Stories That the Court Wants to Hear: Questioning Litigants' Access to Justice in Family Court	JoAnne Sweeny #Metoo, Traditional Rhetoric, and Legal Storytelling	Kristen Stanley Trauma-Sensitive Storytelling	Ashley B. Armstrong The Stories We (Don't) Tell: Using Case Briefing to Explore Bias and Oppression in the Law
6:00-10:00 p.m.	Middle Temple Inn of Court	Closing Event: Middle Temple Inn of Court Drinks (6:00 p.m.) and Dinner (7:00 p.m.)			